

Introduction / Giriş

This book contains game and activity ideas which can be used for teaching English (and, in fact, other subjects.) It is the product of nineteen different teachers from the United States Peace Corps who have lived and taught in Turkmenistan. From their own teaching experience here, these games and activities were found to be effective in helping students learn English and enjoy the process of learning at the same time.

Most of the ideas are adaptable; you can gear the game/activity around whatever aspect of the language you are teaching. You may have to page through for a bit to find the particular idea that suits your next lesson, but there should be something. Feel free to rework the ideas to match your own teaching style (I do.)

Bu kitap iňlis dilini owretmekde peýdalanar ýaly oýun we iş pikirleri öz içine alýar (şeyle-de beýleki dersler üçin.) Bu Türkmenistanda ýaşan we owreden Birleşen Ştatlaryň Parahatçylyk Korpusynyň aýry-aýry mugallymlarynyň taýynlan işi. Mugallymlaryň şahsy tejribelerinden ugur alynsa, bu oýunlar we işler okuwçylaryň iňlis dilini owrenmekligine täsirli we şol bir wagtyň özünde-de ony owrenmek prosesinde lezzetly diýlip tapylan.

Ol pikirleriň köpüsi iş ýüzünde ornaşdyrylan; siz oýny we işi öz owredýän diliňiziň islendik garaýyşda serenjam berip bilersiňiz. Siz öz indiki sapagyňyzyň kanagatlanarly bolmagy üçin, azajyk-da bolsa üýtgeşik pikirleri tapar ýaly kitaba göz gezdirip bilersiňiz. Öz owrediş stiliňize gabat geler ýaly pikirleri çekinmäni täzeden işläp bilersiňiz (Men şeýle edýärim.)
